

I support media diversity

The strongest link for freedom this country enjoys is freedom of the press. To be informed and get a broad view is the American way. With the changes the FCC is making we will be like a 3rd world country being forced fed. It is amazing to me that it is even being considered. I strongly oppose the changing of the rules.

Thank you,

Nancy Reynolds